Note:
All members in good standing of the Scout Association intending to travel overseas are entitled to carry an International Letter of Introduction as a means of identification to any Scout Headquarters or official.

It must be clearly understood that this International document is only to vouch for the Scout credentials of the bearer, and is not a licence to impose on Scouts elsewhere.

UNIFORM:
The uniform prescribed in Policy and Rules R 14 .2 may be worn by members travelling overseas, the current Australian Scarf is available from Snowgum Stores on presentation of the authority to purchase forwarded with your International Letter of Introduction.

The maximum period for which an International Letter of Introduction will be valid is two years.
